ORDER:

Whereas, the Director General, Anti-Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad has conducted detailed enquiry on the allegations of irregular allotment of lands belonging to Yadavallivari Choultry, Guntur district and submitted final report vide reference 1st read above. Government, after careful examination of the report submitted by the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau have framed Article of Charges against (9) Charged Officers. Sri L.Venkata Rao, the then Manager Yadavallivari Choultry, Guntur District was one among the Charged Officers against whom Articles of charges were framed vide reference 2nd read above calling for his explanation. He has submitted Written Statement of Defence vide reference 3rd read above requesting to drop further action. The matter was examined and the Commissioner of Endowments Department, Hyderabad was appointed as Inquiry Officer in the reference 4th read above to conduct enquiry into the charges framed against the Charged Officers including the said Sri L.Venkata Rao, the then Manager .

2. And whereas, the Inquiry Officer has conducted enquiry and submitted his Inquiry report vide reference 6th read above. The Enquiry Officer in his enquiry report held that the charges framed against the said Charged Officers are not proved. Government have examined the findings of the Inquiry Officer and found that there were supervisory defects, if not, a total lack of supervision/ just issuing instructions to Subordinate Officers is not enough, especially when all the Charged Officers were field Officers, directly in the line of duty. Moreover, the explanation revolves around technicalities such as delay in filing charge sheets instead of actually trying to answer the charge made. Government have therefore disagreed with the findings of the Enquiry Officer. While sending a copy of the Inquiry Officer's report together with disagreement
